Welcome

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to Stay Central, the University of London's dedicated summer accommodation service.

Each year, when our students head home for the summer, we open the doors of our Bloomsbury residences to international groups, summer schools, and educational programmes.

Our aim is simple – to provide safe, affordable, and high-quality accommodation in the heart of London, supported by experienced teams who understand the needs of group organisers. With our proven track record, prime location, and commitment to safeguarding, Stay Central is a trusted partner for your summer stay.

About Stay Central

Stay Central is the University of London's summer accommodation service, designed for groups visiting the capital for educational or cultural programmes.

Operating across three centrally located Bloomsbury residences, we offer flexible stays from 25 June to 7 September 2026.

Our mission is to create a welcoming and supportive environment where international schools, universities, and educational providers can focus on delivering their programmes, while we take care of the rest.
